August 28th, 2020

Dear Valued Customer,

In response to rising raw material cost, AdvanSix Inc. will increase the price of Acetone $0.04 per pound as per applicable contract terms. This price increase will be effective September 7th, 2020.

In accordance with applicable contract terms, AdvanSix will restrict purchases to the monthly average over the last 6 months.

We appreciate your business and are working hard to safely and efficiently support your company's growth in the future. Please contact your AdvanSix Sales Manager should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Clay Stephenson
Acetone Product Manager
