Dear Valued Customer,

This letter is to inform you that effective December 1, 2020, or as contracts allow, Celanese is increasing pricing for the following products. The increase specified below is incremental to any previously announced increases.

Ethyl Acetate prices will increase by 3 cents per pound in US and Canada

If you have any questions, please contact your dedicated Celanese sales Account Manager.

Sincerely,

Lucas Posada
Product Manager – Esters EMEA, US&CA & Latam
